

clerk of the court assigned the matter a case number and it proceeded as, People of the State of Illinois v. K.I. (1).

4. On March 3, 2008, K.I., then age seventeen, plead guilty to the charge of minor drinking and was sentenced to court supervision for a period of 12 months in the case.

5. On October 20, 2008, the State of Illinois filed a second complaint against K.I. charging her with unlawful consumption of alcoholic liquor as a minor, a class A misdemeanor, in the Circuit Court of Carroll County. The clerk of the court assigned the matter a case number and it proceeded as, People of the State of Illinois v. K. I. (2).

6. On October 22, 2008, the State filed a petition to revoke court supervision which K.I. had received in her case (1), due to K.I.'s failure to comply with the condition of the supervision that she not violate any criminal statutes of any jurisdiction.

7. Prior to March 9, 2009, the state consolidated the two case numbers relating to K.I. On March 9, 2009, K.I. entered a plea of guilty to the offense of minor drinking and was sentenced to incarceration for 22 days followed by a period of probation with conditions for 12 months.

8. Prior to April 2, 2009, Respondent was assigned as prosecutor in K.I.'s cases.

9. On April 12, 2009, Respondent filed a petition to revoke probation on behalf of the state in K.I.'s case, on the basis that K.I. had failed to keep her home visit appointment with her probation officer, failed to complete her alcohol and substance abuse treatment as ordered, and failed to notify the probation department of her change of address.

10. On April 15, 2009, a warrant of arrest was issued against K.I. in her cases.

11. On October 20, 2009, following a traffic stop of K.I., K.I. was charged with resisting or obstructing a peace officer, a class A misdemeanor, when she ran from a police